

First Rate Town

opb. Good Kid

arr. Eric

$\text{♩} = 184$
VP intro

1

Solo

Soprano

Alto

Tenor

Bass

6

Solo

S.

A.

T.

B.

10

Solo

S.

A.

T.

B.

This is a first rate town But all you e-ver notice Are the ways it's stretched too far.

2

14

Solo

And it has been knocked down But some of us are still Left here be-tween the scars

S.

A.

T.

B.

18

Solo

When you look a-round, all you e-ver notice is you can-not see the stars

S.

A.

T.

B.

22

Solo

This is a first-rate town, a first - rate town you know—

S.

A.

T.

B.

26

Solo

You just can't see ve-ry far—

S.

A.

T.

B.

30

Solo

When the

S.

A.

T.

B.

35

Solo

last door closed, you packed your clothes. And went back to Mon - tre - al— Said, "It was

S.

A.

T.

B.

39

Solo

S.

A.

T.

B.

cold - er there," a chill hangs in the air It helps you forget it all— You left an emp - ty

44

Solo

S.

A.

T.

B.

bookshelf that I did-n't fill till fall— This is a firstrate town, a first - rate town you know

49

Solo

S.

A.

T.

B.

— You just can't see it at all—

54

Solo

Well

S.

A.

T.

B.

59

Solo

it will fade as all things must I loved you but you

S.

A.

T.

B.

65

Solo

didn't love me e - nough_ Win - ter comes, the car will

S.

A.

T.

B.

6

70

Solo

rust I'll start it up, then always run a lit-tle rough_ This is a

S.

A.

T.

B.

75

Solo

first-rate town and all you e-ver notice Are the ways it's stretched too far They keep the

S.

A.

T.

B.

79

Solo

death rates down It's col - der than a winter spent in de-fros - ting cars We

S.

A.

T.

B.

83

Solo

8

talked a lot of lea-ving, didn't think you'd get that far— This is a first-rate town, a first-

S.

A.

T.

8

B.

88

Solo

8

- rate town you know— You just can't see very far—

S.

A.

T.

8

B.